Condition of Sale

Health

- This puppy has a one-year limited warranty for congenital life-threatening diagnosis' that would result in death. This condition of sale is for limited congenital ailments including, but not limited to, defects of the heart, liver, kidneys, and lungs. If such an event is warranted, and proper medical records are provided, a replacement puppy will be offered, no cash refunds are ever given.
- This puppy is guaranteed to be in good health at the time of sale. The Buyer has an incubation health benefit for 10 calendar days. It is strongly recommended Buyer takes puppy to a veterinarian of their choosing prior to the end of the incubation health benefit. If the puppy requires veterinary attention, Seller's responsibility is limited to incubating concerns when Seller's resources and approved veterinary sources are solely utilized. Regardless of distance traveled. Buyer has been provided this veterinary contact information.
- Be careful where you take your puppy until fully immunized. Even with prior treatment, Seller does not guarantee against coccidiosis, giardia, acquired intestinal parasites, external parasites or communicable diseases such as parvo, distemper or rabies. Seller takes every precaution to prevent and control these conditions, but a puppy's immune system is immature at the time of going to its new home.
- Seller is not responsible for any parasites such as fleas, ticks, etc., once the puppy has left the Seller's premises.
- Puppy is promised to have been bred from parents who have received all reasonable care and consideration prior to breeding to produce a healthy puppy.
- Seller's responsibility is limited to incubating concerns. Accidents, panic, injury, improper feeding, accidental intake, ailments associated with not following Sellers's care instructions are not compensated or reimbursed.
- Regular or after-hours emergency veterinary visits and/or other incurred fees of any kind will not be compensated. Diagnostic and/or other exorbitant veterinary fees are never compensated.

Pet Insurance

- Buyer is encouraged to consider a pet insurance policy which could be beneficial for you and the wellbeing of your new puppy. Seller provides a preapproved policy for a special 30-day period, instant coverage (no waiting period) introductory offer with Trupanion. Continuation of the insurance with this provider after the 30-day period, or a provider of the Buyer's choice, is at the sole discretion of the Buyer.

Rehoming

- Seller assumes no responsibility for the puppy leaving the premises for landlord disapproval, allergies, or family disagreement or any other reason not supported by this "condition of sale". However, if for any reason whatsoever, you are no longer able to care for the puppy or choose to not keep your puppy/dog, Buyer understands that they may contact the Seller for assistance in rehoming. It is understood that no refunds or financial agreements are implied or expressed.
